

LEAP User Manual

Install the application

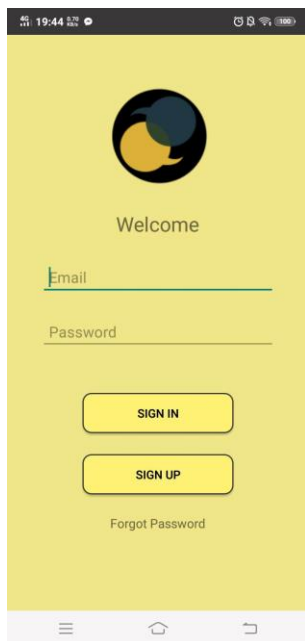

you can install the application with the given link and upon installation you can now start the application

Sign Up

After you open the application you can now start signing up in order to access the application.

You are required to provide a username, email, and password.

Congratulations

You are now an official user of the application. This build currently lack most of the features that might be implemented for the future update but now you can talk too all of the users that who are using the application.

Log out for logging out you can press the three dots on the top right corner and you can press log out.

